Collins is new Prevail Bank Vice President

Prevail Bank is pleased to announce that Michael Collins is Prevail Bank's new Vice President in Wausau, WI. Collins, an elite 504 lender, brings decades, over 30 years, of commercial banking, loan growth, and portfolio management experience to the full-service business team of Prevail Bank.

"We are excited to have Michael join our team," said Craig Philipp, Prevail Bank's Chief Commercial Lender. "Michael is a successful sales professional with experience in both small and large financial institutions. He's led sales teams, hired lending professionals, is well versed in small business administration (SBA) lending including being honored as one of WBD's elite lenders, and has helped numerous clients achieve financial success."

Collins, a Wisconsin native, is a UW-Stevens Point graduate. He's an active member of the Wausau Breakfast Optimist Club, Board Director of the Marathon County Salvation Army, and a supporter of Big Brothers Big Sisters. When he isn't working, Collins enjoys spending time with his wife and four Great Danes, fishing, and golfing.
