Hygiene drive collected everything from tampons to wet wipes

Five (5) Prevail Bank branches took part in 88.5FM The Family's Help for the Homeless Hygiene Drive in late Feb/early March. Pictured are all the items collected by Prevail Bank branches; Medford and Owen. These items were divided between two local nonprofits; Stepping Stones, represented by (left to right) co-Directors Courtney Scholl and Shanna Kestler, and Taylor County Supportive Housing, represented by Board President, Jessica Mudgett. The public donations collected in the other Prevail Bank branches; Eau Claire, Marshfield, and Wausau were divided between the crisis programs in their communities.
