Over $15,162 was gifted between nine local non-profits through Prevail Bank

(Baraboo) Between public donations and Prevail Bank matching up to $1,000 at each branch location where donations were collected, a total of $15,162.54 was gifted to nine local non-profits as part of Prevail Bank's Holiday Matching Funds campaign this December.

The Baraboo branch of Prevail Bank chose the Sauk County Children's Giving Tree as the beneficiary of its Holiday Matching Funds campaign. The Children's Giving Tree provides a variety of items including Christmas toys, clothing and supplies to children and families in Sauk County, in addition to financial assistance and meals. A total donation of $1,330 to the Sauk County Children's Giving Tree was made between Prevail Bank and the public.

Prevail Bank recognizes the importance of local nonprofits and the resources they provide for those less fortunate in the communities of central Wisconsin. Each of Prevail Bank's branches chose a different organization to support.

Those organizations gifted with monetary funds and non-perishable gifts included:

- Sauk County Children's Giving Tree (Prevail Bank - Baraboo) $1,330
- Christmas is for Children (Eau Claire) $2,625 (estimated value of 75 wrapped gifts)
- Ronald McDonald House Charities (Marshfield) $2,500.77
- Taylor County Supportive Housings (Medford) $2,099.66
- W-O-W Kid's Meals Program (Owen) $1,590
- Santa's Elves Foundation (Phillips) $2,235.11
- United Way of Portage County (Stevens Point) $402
- Catholic Charities - Wausau Community Warming Center (Wausau) $2,120

- Park Place Adult Day Services (Wisconsin Rapids) $260

Prevail Bank’s goal is to pursue what’s possible within the communities it serves. It is passionate about economic development, financial stability and growth for individuals, families, and businesses. Prevail Bank is a community bank that is continuously looking for ways to give back, support those pursuing dreams, and make things better in central Wisconsin.
