Shredded documents equate to $950.00 for The Red Apple Center

(Phillips) As a result of Prevail Bank’s Community Shred Day event in Phillips, $950 was gifted to The Red Apple Center. That amount is comprised of $850 from Prevail Bank (it pledged a dollar for every pound of paper shredded) and $100 in public donations. The Red Apple Center is a nonprofit organization that supports adults with disabilities. Their services include job training, supported employment, life skills coaching, recreation opportunities and day services. It also works with schools to transition students with disabilities to a variety of post-high school options.
