RYAN LUDY NAMED AS AMBASSADOR OF THE QUARTER BY THE EAU CLAIRE AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Prevail Bank is proud to announce that its own, Ryan Ludy, Mortgage Loan Originator in Eau Claire (NMLS# 1836499) was recognized as Eau Claire Area Chamber of Commerce's Ambassador of the Quarter. Chamber Ambassadors are an upbeat and positive group of business community volunteers, who facilitate and promote the Chamber at various events throughout the year. Most notably, the Ambassadors host professional networking events, volunteer at many of the Chamber's larger events, as well as facilitate and represent the Chamber at ribbon cutting and ground breaking ceremonies.

"We are very appreciative of Ryan Ludy's dedication and the countless hours he volunteered," said Phillip Swiler, Eau Claire Area Chamber of Commerce's Vice President of Investor Relations. "This is a well-deserved award."

Brent Arndt, Senior Vice President Mortgage Manager, added, "We are very proud to have Ryan on the Prevail Bank team and as a volunteer with the Chamber. His hard work, dedication and amazing service shows daily in the feedback we receive from both customers and the community."

Ludy joined Prevail Bank with a strong desire to help customers make smart financial decisions that positively impact their financial future. He is a devoted Wisconsin sports fan and enjoys the many activities that the Chippewa Valley has to offer with his wife and three children.

Prevail Bank is a federally chartered savings bank founded in 1934 with locations in Baraboo, Eau Claire, Marshfield, Medford, Owen, Phillips, Stevens Point, Wausau and Wisconsin Rapids.
